FESTIVAL RULES & REGULATIONS

LANGUAGE AND MATERIAL

- Your play must be appropriate for an event that is sponsored by the Department of Education and the NBTA. If you would not do the play at your school in front of the student body and your administration, then it cannot be done at the festival. You must consider language, appropriate material, and cultural sensitivity.
- Offensive language and inappropriate material are not acceptable and may result in disqualification from awards.

ELIGIBILITY

- All New Brunswick public Middle and High Schools are eligible to enter the festival.
- Productions may be directed by teachers, student teachers, students, or a community volunteer approved by the school administration.
- Individual directors may direct two plays.
- All participants must be registered students in your school.
- Teachers may not appear in a play or do voiceovers.

NUMBER OF PLAYS AND SCHEDULING

- Middle Schools may register two plays.
- High Schools may register a maximum of three plays.
- The first two plays will be registered on a first received-first registered basis.

TIME

- To be eligible for recognition, each production must be over 25 minutes and no longer than 60 minutes.
- Each play has 20 minutes to set up and 10 minutes to strike. There will be an official timer for each of these elements. These times will be posted so that directors, cast, and crew will be aware of any problems before the Recognition Ceremony.
- If the play does not comply with the time regulations, it will be disqualified from all categories except acting.
- The play begins when the lights come up, a line is spoken, or music is played. If there is any dispute, the posted time will be considered accurate. Remember that the festival audience is usually very enthusiastic, so please factor this into your playing time.

HEALTH & SAFETY

- No glass is permitted inside of the theatre. Heavy decanters and wine bottles may be permitted.
- No bare feet in the theatre: Socks and shoes required at all times to mitigate stage splinters.
- No live animals permitted.
- Lift and Fight Calls Required: These are necessary during your load in time to ensure students are prepared for the stage.
- If any of your props resemble any form of weapon, you must sign a waiver upon registration which states you take full responsibility for any incidents involving this prop. We will collect any “weapons” on your arrival and return them to you before the performance.

THE ADJUDICATORS

AARON KYTE

Raised in New Brunswick, and now based in Ontario, Aaron has worked for over 20 years as a performer, host, educator, and writer. A graduate of The University of New Brunswick and The Randolph Academy of the Performing Arts, Aaron's credits include Troy Bolton in the Canadian Premiere of 'High School Musical'; Sparky in 'Plaid Tidings'; Gilbert Blythe in 'Anne and Gilbert'; and Aladdin in 'Disney's Aladdin.' TV credits include 'Keisha's Perfect Dress' (Slice TV, co-host); 'On The Run' (Discovery); 'Revelation: End of Days' (History)... and way more Swiss Chalet Commercials than he cares to count.

ANDREW MCALLISTER

Andrew was born and raised in Quispamsis, NB. After finishing high school at KVHS, he attended Sheridan College in Oakville, ON and graduated from their prestigious Musical Theatre - Performance Program. 18 years later he is still crafting his acting career and finding new ways to be inspired. He is passionate about the Arts in NB and believes in all the natural talent that the province possesses. Andrew has had the privilege of performing all over Canada and being apart of over 45+ professional productions including 10 seasons at The Charlottetown Festival. He returns to NB after just closing a successful run of The Full Monty in Edmonton, AB. One of the highlights of his career is being apart of three original casts of new Canadian work (Evangeline, GROW and Maggie). He will next be back out west in Calgary performing as Elton John in Legend of the 80s and then in Edmonton in One Night with Roy Orbison!

CHRIS LEVEILLE

CHRIS LEVEILLE is an actor, writer, sketch comedian, and improviser originally from New Brunswick, who's performed at Toronto's top comedy stages including Bad Dog Theatre, Comedy Bar, and The Rivoli's Sketch Lounge, at festivals across North America like the Montreal Sketch Comedy Festival and the East Coast Improv Festival, and even at sea with MSC Cruise Lines. He has a history of creating work with comedic ensembles, notably as a founding member of the Canadian Comedy Award-nominated sketch troupe Dame Judy Dench ("Funniest Discovery," NOW Magazine), and as a writer-performer on the Toronto Fringe Festival hit 32 Short Sketches About Bees (winner of The Second City's Outstanding New Comedy Award and MyEntertainment World Critics Choice Award for Best Sketch / Improv Show). Offstage, he has coached longform improv teams, mentored longform improv coaches in both The Second City Longform Program and The Assembly, and has led workshops for The Second City Education Company. A graduate of the Bishop's University's Drama Program, the Narrative Studio at the Bad Dog Academy, and The Second City Conservatory and Longform Programs, you can find him performing on comedy stages in Toronto, in commercials and on television as a shady funeral director (CBC's Tallboyz), or furiously scribbling in his notebook.

ILKAY SILK

DramaFest is one of Ilkay Silk's most favourite times of the year. She loves seeing so many eager, talented and energetic students enjoying the collective and creative process of telling a story onstage. Hats off to the teachers that worked so hard to bring their students to Fredericton. She taught at STU for 36 years. She has directed over 100 plays. She has been an adjudicator for over 50 years. Bring on DramaFest 2025!

KATIE SWIFT

Katie Swift trained as an actor at the National Theatre School of Canada and had a 20-year career as a professional theatre artist in Halifax and Toronto. Recently, she moved back to her hometown of Sussex, N.B. with her family and is completing her Bachelor of Education here at St. Thomas University. She is so excited to begin her new career as an Elementary French Immersion teacher here in New Brunswick. Katie has worked as a performer and director with companies across the country including the National Arts Centre, Great Canadian Theatre Company, Festival Players, Canadian Stage, TNB, 2btheatre, Theatre NorthWest, Watermark, and more. She is the recipient of a Rideau Award and a Merritt Award nominee. Katie has been an adjudicator at the Drama Fest for over 10 years, and it remains the highlight of every spring! Have a great festival everyone!

NATHANAEL TELMAN

Nathanael Telman is a Fredericton based theatre artist. He has been performing his whole life, from church choirs to dance. While studying English at St Thomas University, he was always involved in theatre. Most recently, he toured the province with Theatre New Brunswick's Young Company. Whether it is on or off the stage, he loves every part of the collaborative theatre process. Nathanael is tremendously excited to return to NB Dramafest.

LOUIE ROSSETTI

Moncton High Alumni Louie Rossetti earned his Bachelor of Music Theatre, and Diploma in Performance, from Sheridan. Favourite professional credits include: Fabrizio 'The Light in the Piazza' for Theatre Calgary (Critics Choice Award nomination), Rolf Gruber, 'The Sound of Music' in Toronto, produced by Andrew Lloyd Webber (Mirvish), two seasons playing Gilbert Blythe, 'Anne of Green Gables' at the Charlottetown Festival, and three seasons at the Shaw Festival in productions, 'Ragtime', 'My Fair Lady', 'The Cherry Orchard', 'One Touch of Venus', 'Trouble In Tahiti' and 'The Admirable Crichton' (director Morris Panych). Other career highlights: 'Les Miserables' (Drayton), 'Spamalot' (StageWest), Norm Foster musical 'One Moment' (Lighthouse), and Jamie in 'The Last 5 Years' for Orpheus (Broadway World Award winner).

Recipient of the 2004 Alvin Shaw Award, Louie is forever grateful to the NB Drama Festival for the encouragement, inspiration and support that helped propel him toward his wildest dreams.

TANIA BREEN

Tania Breen is an Atlantic Canadian performer, director, producer, writer and educator. As Director of Theatre New Brunswick Theatre School and TNB Young Company for over 15 years, Tania directed countless productions at all levels, wrote numerous scripts and fostered the growth of the theatre community in Atlantic Canada. Tania is the co-lyricist of two full length musicals; A Christmas Carol adapted with Michael Doherty and Caleb Marshall and For Life with Norm Foster. She is the inaugural recipient of the Diane London Award for Women in the Arts, and received the Playhouse Honours award from the Fredericton Playhouse in 2019. She teaches musical theatre and performance with St. Thomas University's Fine Arts Department, is part of the Drama Faculty at the University of New Brunswick, and is the Artistic Advisor for Black Box Productions, St. Thomas University's resident theatre company. Most recent credits include: Groundhog Day, Urinetown, (STU Musical Theatre), Mi Casa (Black Box Productions), Songs of the City (Shivering Songs Festival), Lighthouse (Leaf Music/Playhouse), Crossroads (Theatre UNB), Sweet Dreams: the Musical (Impulse); Cabaret, Seussical, Sweeney Todd (STU Musical Theatre).

FESTIVAL ARTWORK

NBDF2025 POSTER DESIGN

MAGGIE JONES

Fredericton High School

Hello there, person reading this Dramafest program! My name is Maggie Jones and I did the design for this year's poster! I am an eleventh grade student and artist currently attending Fredericton High school. My free time is usually spent drawing, yearning, and re-watching Gravity Falls despite already having it committed to memory. I am also lucky enough to be playing Maddy Joyce in "Due to Unforeseen Circumstances" by Jared Mallard! you should totally come check it out and say "Hey! You drew the poster!" To which I'll respond, "Hi! yes! That was me!"!!

Looking to have your design featured on the poster next year?

Check in with your Drama Advisor or Art teacher to submit artwork for next years poster. We encourage students in High School and Middle School to submit a design for the logo that celebrates Drama Festival.

The artist of the selected artwork will receive $200.00

SYNOPSIS

Set in an alternative education center facing imminent shutdown, the story centers on Maddy Joyce, (Played by Maggie Jones), a sharp, overworked teacher hiding a recent pregnancy and Jubilee Jacobi, (Played by Addy Hamilton), a newly transferred, pregnant teen with a guarded heart and a brilliant mind. What begins as a clash of personalities slowly evolves into something transformative: a connection forged through shared pain, mutual respect, and the understanding that motherhood, no matter when it arrives, changes everything.

As the world around them starts to fall apart, Maddy and Jubilee find strength in each other, confronting their own fears, losses, and expectations. Through heartbreak, humor, and the raw truths of growing up (and growing older), Due to Unforeseen Circumstances explores what it means to build a chosen family, how we carry grief, and how sometimes the people we least expect become our greatest source of healing.

Built on gut-punching performances, this play takes a look at resilience, mentorship, and what it really means to show up for someone, especially when you yourself are falling apart.

Note: Due to Unforeseen Circumstances contains themes including teen pregnancy, pregnancy loss, grief, family trauma and medical distress, and emotional subject matter.

SYNOPSIS

In early December of 1952, Jacqueline Bell stumbles upon her mother's police files and discovers a murder case involving Timothy Evans, a man she used to know that was hanged just shy of two years ago for killing his wife and baby daughter. While going over the paperwork, she notices chunks of evidence missing and countless discrepancies. She decides to investigate on her own. With the deceitful case full of twists and turns uncovering lies she wished to never know, Jacqueline has to decide when it is time to stop. But she knows she is on to something, and she is the only one that can prove it. This is a thrilling historical fiction show that will inform you about the dreadful side effects of lying, deception, and selfishness.

SYNOPSIS

Once upon a time, in a far away swamp, there lived an ogre named Shrek whose precious solitude is suddenly shattered by an invasion of annoying fairy tale characters. They were all banished from their kingdom by the evil Lord Farquaad. Determined to save their home, not to mention his, Shrek cuts a deal with Farquaad and sets out to rescue Princess Fiona to be Farquaad's bride. Rescuing the Princess may be small compared to her deep, dark secret.

SYNOPSIS

One Stoplight Town is a story about people from a town so small that you might drive through without taking a second look. But if you stopped for just a moment, you might see a young couple falling in love, a cantankerous grocery store owner coping with change, a daughter returning home while another thinks about leaving, and a repair woman taking it all in while she fixes what is broken. These stories and more are filled with fun characters, lots of humour, plenty of heart and the theme that change comes for us all, whether we are ready or not.

SYNOPSIS

“Once Upon a Mattress” is a musical comedy, a modern retelling of the fairytale “The Princess and the Pea”. In a fairy tale kingdom, Queen Aggravain, a controlling figure, forbids anyone to marry until her son, Prince Dauntless, finds a wife. She tests potential brides with elaborate, ridiculous challenges. The story follows Princess Winnifred, a fiesty, unconventional princess, who arrives with Sir Harry and Lady Larken, trying to break the curse and allow everyone to marry.

Set at a time when England was still divided between “upstairs” and “downstairs,” this play takes place in the kitchen of a large Victorian house where the servants are trying to adjust to the incredible fact that their wealthy, demanding and flamboyant mistress is lying dead upstairs. As the women talk, their various relationships with each other and with their mistress are progressively revealed. Tension builds to a climax when the bell from upstairs, by which the mistress for so long directed their lives, suddenly rings again!

SYNOPSIS

Theatre is not just a stage, a script and a cast - any actor could tell you that. In this little school, theatre is a home, a family... a cafeteria and some black boxes? It is senior year for nearly everyone in this little group (don't remind them) and it is almost time to say goodbye, but they have one very important job left. To train their newest recruit on everything there is to love about theatre. Oh, and to show their favourite sophomore how to run the group of course. There is so much to do and time is moving quick; before they know it they will have their last bow.

SYNOPSIS

When Jacob's English teacher encourages him to finally put his writing skills to good use by entering an essay contest, he and his best friend Alex set off on an adventure in search of inspiration. Along the way, Jacob embarks on a journey of self-discovery, questioning what he truly wants to create—and whether he has the talent and determination to become a writer or pursue something entirely different. This is the story of a young creative searching for his muse and passion, all while navigating the expectations of his parents and beginning to define his path in life.

Written by student playwright Peter Jollymore, this play captures the heart and humor of chasing dreams, finding purpose, and learning to listen to your own voice.

Good for Nothing is based on the true story of Goody Garlick, a woman who was wrongfully accused of witchcraft in the mid- 1600's. Goody's best friend, Sarah, believes in her innocence wholeheartedly, going against the beliefs of her closed-minded husband Thomas. Goody and Sarah work to clear her name, while also fighting back against the anti-women rhetoric of the town, and society. Good for Nothing is a play about the dangers of fearmongering, mass hysteria, mob mentality, and the struggle to do what is right amid an ever-changing, frightening world.

SYNOPSIS

Friends and family gather at the extravagant home of the flamboyant Mr. Bryenton for what promises to be a night of revelry and indulgence. The guests, however, are more interested in Mr. Bryenton's wealth than his company. As the night progresses, an unsettling atmosphere begins to permeate the party. Suddenly, the guests discover that they are trapped inside the house, and trust among them starts to crumble. Old friends from the army and even family members reveal their true colors as past secrets come to light. The saying "blood is thicker than water" is put to the test as alliances shift and betrayals unfold. Join us on this thrilling adventure as the guests navigate through mistrust and hidden agendas to uncover the truth. Will they turn this dark abyss into a moment of joy and prosperity, or will the secrets of the past consume them all? Come and experience the adventure of the century at Mr. Bryenton's house in good old Campbellton, where nothing is as it seems, and everyone has something to hide.

SYNOPSIS

When Ren and his mother move from Chicago to a small town, he is prepared for the inevitable adjustment period at his new high school. But he's not prepared for the rigorous local edicts, including a ban on dancing instituted by the local preacher, who is determined to control the town's youth. When the Reverend's rebellious daughter sets her sights on Ren, her high school dropout boyfriend tried to sabotage Ren's reputation, with many of the locals eager to believe the worst about the new kid. The heartfelt story that emerges pins a father longing for the son he lost against a young man aching for the father who walked out on him.
